Mechanic

The position

We are looking for an Aircraft Component Mechanic to join our team at AAR Component Services – Amsterdam. If you're passionate about technical precision, enjoy working with your hands, and thrive in a team environment, this role offers the perfect opportunity to help keep the world flying. You will play a vital part in inspecting, repairing, and reassembling a wide range of aircraft components.

- Inspect various aircraft components including hydraulic, electrical, fuel, and mechanical systems
- Repair and replace defective parts and prepare them for final testing
- Assemble components to meet safety and quality standards
- Accurately document inspection findings and completed work
- Ensure each part is restored and ready to return to service

Total rewards

As an AAR team member your rewards include:

- Competitive salary based on experience
- 8% holiday allowance and 7% end-of-year bonus
- Profit-sharing opportunities
- Flexible start time between 6:00 AM and 9:00 AM
- 26 vacation days + 3.5 additional ADV days
- Comprehensive pension plan
- Supportive team culture focused on growth and innovation

Performance objectives

- Technical quality – consistently delivers high-quality, precise repair work
- Teamwork – works effectively in a team-oriented environment
- Communication – communicates clearly in both Dutch and English
- Independence – completes tasks reliably and proactively
- Continuous improvement – contributes to technical and operational enhancements
- Accountability – takes pride in craftsmanship and attention to detail

Education and experience

- Completed MBO level 3 or 4 education in a technical field
- Experience with hydraulic, fuel, electrical, or mechanical components preferred
- Accurate, proactive, and technically skilled
- Fluency in Dutch and English
- We are looking for a candidate who lives in The Netherlands, preferably in or near Hoofddorp.

Why should you apply?

At AAR, “Doing it right” means putting quality, safety, and people first. You’ll be part of a global leader in aviation where your leadership makes a real difference every day.
